And here are the materials for the songs:

The Legend of The Rent is the famous tune from the film we'd really like you to blow us away with your most powerful rock sound. REMEMBER, in the show this is without accompaniment! No band or piano, just you, so practice this well and be prepared to sing it without the track.

If Only You Would Listen is a more musical number and would suit a softer voice with opportunity to show some nice gospel chops.
